

Dear Sir or Madam

Dear friends

Today's newsletter looks at the dissolution of the Knesset, the Jewish scholar Maimonides, and the question of whether Jews in the diaspora can still be helped.

Today's topics

Election of reckoning. The Israeli parliament, the Knesset, has unanimously initiated the process of dissolving itself and thus paving the way for new elections. Why this has happened and where it could lead has been analysed by our correspondent Jan Kapusnak. The Knesset votes for its dissolution.: What are the benefits of working for the Diaspora Jews? - FokusIsrael

Scholar and physician. The physician and rabbi Maimonides, who died at the beginning of the 13th century, is regarded as one of the greatest Jewish scholars of all time. His works were published in Arabic, Hebrew and Latin. With his religious philosophy, derived from Aristotle and based on knowledge and reason, Maimonides still has much to say to us today. This is shown in our AI interview with him. Maimonides to FokusIsrael.ch: "Many today seek ecstasy instead of knowledge in religion"

In a lost position. The antisemitism in our society that has become ever more violent and ever more open in Europe since 7 October 2023 is merely a foretaste of what Jews in the European diaspora can expect in the future. This is not scaremongering, but a question of demographics. Nevertheless, the fight against it must not be abandoned. What are the benefits of working for the Diaspora Jews? - FokusIsrael

More up-to-date coverage on Israel, the Middle East and antisemitism can be found here:

More News on FokusIsrael.ch

I hope you find our information of interest.

I wish you a good weekend.

Verein Fokus Israel und Nahost

Sacha Wigdorovits

Editor-in-Chief

Verein Fokus Israel und Nahost

8702 Zollikon

newsletter@fokusisrael.ch

www.fokusisrael.ch

You received this email because at some point you expressed interest in the topics of "Israel and the Middle East" and/or "antisemitism", or because you hold a position of importance in politics, research and academia, or your professional field.

Unsubscribe from the newsletter